We Are Muslims: We Have 'Imān

Objective of the Lesson:

If we want to know someone, we need to know what he does and what he believes. As Muslims, we do certain things and believe in something. Students will learn the few important requirements that make us Muslims.

When we say we are Muslims, we should know why we are Muslims. As Muslims, what do we do? What do we believe in?

As Muslims, we must have certain beliefs. Our belief is called 'Imān'. For example, we believe in Allāh (swt) as our God. This belief is an 'Imān'. We believe in the angels. This belief is also an 'Imān'. As Muslims, we have some other beliefs. All of the 'Imān' together makes a system of faith. This system of faith is Islam. People who follow Islam are Muslims.

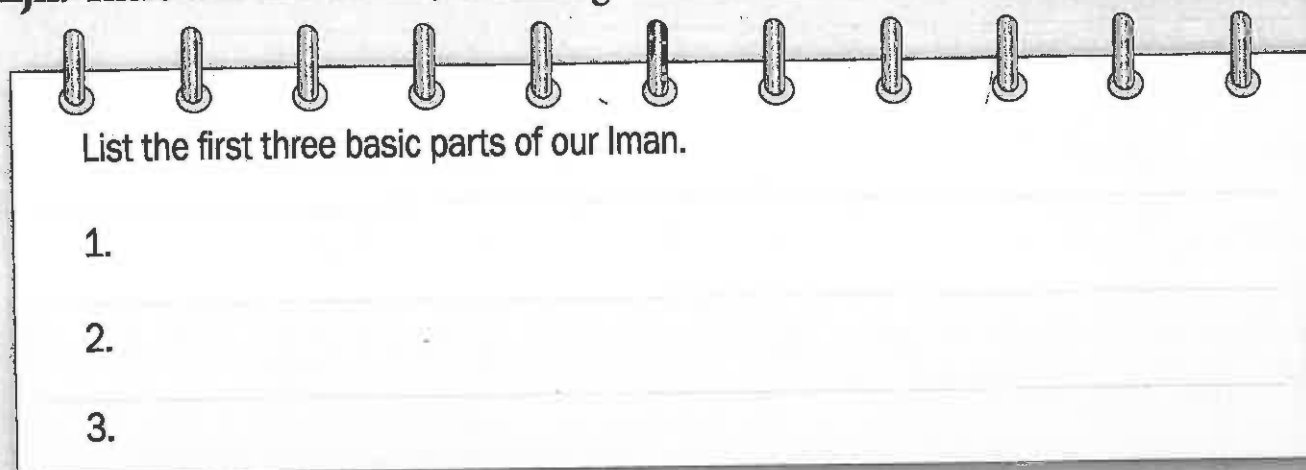

As Muslims, we have the following beliefs. These are the main parts of our 'Imān'.

Tawhid: This is the belief that Allāh (swt) is only One. Nothing can be equal to Allāh (swt). Nothing in the world can be His partner. He has no son or daughter. He has no parents and no wife. He is not a man or a woman. He has no junior gods or senior gods.

Angels: We believe that angels exist and Allāh (swt) created them. We do not see them, but they can see us. Angels follow the orders of Allāh (swt). They always glorify Allāh (swt). The angels have many other duties. Some of them have duties to help the believers.

The books of Allāh (swt): We believe in the books of Allāh (swt). Before sending the Qur'ān to Prophet Muhammad (S), Allāh (swt) sent many other Books to other prophets. Some of these Books that we know by name are the Tawrāt, Zabur, and Injil. There was also Suhuf, or short guidance, sent to some other prophets.

List the first three basic parts of our Iman.

- 2.
- 3.

Rasuls of Allāh (swt): Rasuls are messengers who brought Allāh's messages to the people. We believe in all the rasuls of Allāh (swt). There are no differences among them. The rasuls came to guide their people. Every community received their own messenger. The rasuls were sent to different parts of the world. The names of all the rasuls are not listed in the Qur'ān. Muhammad (S) was the final rasul of Allāh (swt).

The Last Day: The world will not last forever. There will be a Last Day for all creatures. We do not know the exact date, but as Muslims, we believe that the world and all the creatures will end someday in the future. We believe in Al-Akhirah, or the Hereafter.

Al-Qadr: Another basic part of our belief is al-Qadr. We believe that Allāh (swt) created everything in the universe and He is in control of everything. He knows about every creation even before He creates them. For this reason, we believe that Allāh (swt) has prior knowledge of everything. All good and bad that happen are in Allāh's full knowledge. Not only that, but He decides what is good and what is bad. He measures out everything for us.

Life after death: We believe that many things will happen during Al-Akhirah. Our 'Imān tells us that after the world comes to an end, all the dead people will rise up. The Day of Judgment will happen to reward us for our good deeds and punish those who did wrong. If we have faith and enough good deeds, we will go to Heaven. Life in the Al-Akhirah will last forever.

List the last four basic parts of our Iman.

2.

4.

All of us are Muslim because we have the same 'Imān. We may speak different languages, eat different food, and wear different types of clothing, but we are all Muslim. We may be from different countries and different parts of the world. We may have different jobs and businesses, yet we are united. Our 'Imān binds us together.

أَمَنْتُ بِاللَّهِ وَمَلَائِكَتِهِ وَكُتُبِهِ وَرُسُلِهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ
وَالْقَدْرِ خَيْرِهِ وَشَرِّهِ مِنَ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى وَالْبَعْثِ بَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ

Amantu billahi wa mala'ikatihī wa kutubihī wa rusulihī wal-yawmil-akhiri wal-qadri khayrihi wa sharrihi minallāhi ta 'ala wal-ba'thi ba'dal maut.

I believe in Allāh (swt), and His angels, and His books, and His Rasuls, and the Last Day, and in the measure—good or bad—is from Allāh (swt), the Most High, and in the raising after death.

homework weekend 5

1. Write one sentence about what you understand by the word 'Imān.

---

2. Circle T if the sentence is true. Circle F if the sentence is false.

Tawhid means to believe that Allāh (swt) is only One.      T      F

Muslims do not have to believe in Tawhid.      T      F

The Books of Allāh (swt) include the Tawrāt and the Qur'ān.      T      F

The names of all messengers are listed in the Qur'ān.      T      F

All messengers came to only one area in the world.      T      F

3. Draw a line to match the words in Column A to the correct words in Column B.

Column A

Al-Akhirah

Tawhid

Zabur

'Imān

Messenger

Column B

Belief

Rasul

Hereafter

One Allāh

Book of Allāh

4. Mention two things that will take place during Al-Akhirah.

A. _____

B. _____

5. The following sentences are either true or false. Put a  mark in the box if true, put an  mark if false.

Allāh (swt) sent only two books to the prophets.

Angels always follow the orders of Allāh (swt).

We can make some differences among the messengers of Allāh (swt).

Tawrāt, Zabur and Injil are names of some of the angels.

There is nothing that can be equal to Allāh (swt).
